Friday October 25th

Field visit in the Park and demonstration of the Gran Sasso-Laga Anti Poison Dog Units

Start at 9,00 o'clock

Lunch in a beautiful Park location

During the excursion of 25th October we will attend to a practical demonstration of the Anti-poison Dog Unit and their utility in signaling the presence of deadly poison baits against wildlife. We will visit also some of the most enchanting landscapes of L'Aquila side of the National Park of Gran Sasso and Monti della Laga. We will cross the upland of Campo Imperatore, described by well-known writers and storytellers as "Little Tibet", and we will visit perched villages of medieval architecture, that are in the list of "The most beautiful villages in Italy" and we will have the opportunity to taste typical local products.
